suits pending, filed affidavits denying specifically each and every allegation.

The affidavit of Abraham A. Joseph sets forth that he never made any such statement as Mrs. Goldensen avers, nor did he ever say anything to her from which she could infer that the money was to be paid to any ludge. It was distinctly understood that the money was to be paid to his brother flerman for his services in trying the case. Herman Joseph submits an affidavit to the same effect. The matter resolves itself into a question of veracity between the lawyers and their client.

Justice Barrett, in the Court of Oyer and Terminer, yesterday dismissed the indictments for perjury pending against Joseph F. Blaut, ex-president of the Madison Square Bank, as he was of the opinion that no conviction could be secured; he had been informed that a majority of the jury which tried Blaut were in favor of acquitting him Blaut's ball was then reduced from $25,000 to $10,000.

The only indictments now pending against Blaut are for misdeamenor in having accepted deposits with the knowledge that the bank was insolvent.
